Write a review of the book, including plot points, if you wish:
In this book Percy has been told all his life he is not a normal kid then, one day he is on vacation with his mom. During this shortened vacation he battles the Minotaur, gets to camp half-blood, and on top of it all loses his mother to Hades' kingdom. He is then challenged with a quest to get the stolen property of a god back before the summer solstice, he can bring two friends and choose his weapons. But can he get his mother and the stolen property before a huge war breaks out between the gods? Read the book and find out.
