This is the story of a band that everyone has heard and yet most people don't even know their name. They played on more hit records than Elvis, than The Beach Boys, than The Rolling Stones or the Beatles combined. They were responsible for the driving beat of the Motown hit factory. The riffs you remember to so many songs were arranged and performed by them; yet if I mentioned some of their names, James Jamerson, Richard Allen, Joe Messina, to name a few there would be no flash of recognition in your mind.
