

Internet Basics - Bloomington

Program Room 2C

Tuesday, March 26, 2013 | 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

This class will provide a basic overview of the types of information that is available via the Internet for patrons. We will cover everything from reading news, finding reliable sources of information, to how to decide on an Internet browser. Patrons should have basic computing skills (or take the computer basics class) prior to taking this class. There will also be time for patrons to ask specific questions about the Internet.
