The Janitor's Boy

Author:

Andrew Clements

Why did you decide to read this book? Did a friend suggest it? Did it have an interesting cover?:

My Mom had gotten me Frindle, by Andre Clements from the Public Library and I loved it. I looked for other books by the same author in our school library and that is how I came across the Janitor's Boy.

What is the story about?/What happened in the story?:

It is about a boy, Jack Rankin, who get punishment because he stuck gum under his desk. He has to help the chief custodian pick up the gum from all the desks at school. The chief custodian is Jack's dad. While working as a janitor for the next three weeks, he finds keys to tow different rooms and goes to explore them. The adventure tells him about his school and his father. He is surprised because before that he did not know anything about his dad or the school.

Why did you like this story? or Why did you not like this story?:

This is a story of fun and excitement.

Other thoughts or feelings about this story? Anything else to add?:

Now I am planning to read more books by Andrew Clements!
