Why did you decide to read this book? Did a friend suggest it? Did it have an interesting cover?:

I decided to red this book because I had just finished The Hunger Games and was really interested in Dystopian future type things and a few of my teachers suggested Divergent to me and I got hooked on the first page!

What is the story about?/What happened in the story?:

The story is about a girl named Beatrice Prior and she supposedly lives in what the author decided was future Chicago. The government has separated all of these people into five factions Dauntless the brave. Amity the peaceful. Abnegation the selfless. Candor the honest, and Erudite the Intelligent. When you turn sixteen you will choose witch faction you will go to and spend the rest of your life with Beatrice has the choice of staying with her family of betraying them. What will she choose? Who knows?

Why did you like this story? or Why did you not like this story?:

I loved this story because there is a mystery around every page. It's that type of book that makes you want to read it more and more and MORE!

Other thoughts or feelings about this story? Anything else to add?:

For all you Dystopian future lovers out there Divergent is a definatly a MUST READ!
