Write a review of the book, including plot points, if you wish:

in this sequel of generation dead, phoebe has decided that she is going to spend as much time as she can to help adam after he died in her arms. she already knows how he feels toward her but she does not yet know what she feels towards him. in this book the zombies have many more problems to face. some of the zombies are turning against the others and have created problems for everyone. now the police have their eyes on them. phoebe along with others have to deal in some ways with this and they try to help. through all of this phoebe may have realized her true feelings but does she end up with tommy or adam? so you will have to just take a look at this question filling book and you won't want to put it down!
